

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The International Centre¹ of the University of Pécs is looking for International Student Ambassadors for the academic year 2025/2026

Who is a student ambassador?

International Student Ambassadors (ISAs) are current students who act as a link between the university and the outside community. They use their experiences to give people interested in university life an idea of what it is like to be a student. They assist at various events; their role is to provide a fair and accurate representation of the university from a student perspective. The University of Pécs' International Student Ambassadors are volunteers

Here are some of the top benefits of becoming an International Student Ambassador:

1. Looks great on your CV/resume: You will gain valuable work experience, and you can improve your skills such as communication, public speaking, teamwork, and working with different age groups.
2. Networking: You will meet students from all over the world and will be working closely with university staff and your fellow ISAs. It could stand you in good stead when needing recommendation letters or contacts for a potential position.
3. Training: We will provide training sessions to help develop or enhance your intercultural, networking, project planning, and professional skills.
4. Certificate: You can be an ambassador for one or more terms. At the end of each term, you receive a certificate that you have been an ISA.
5. It's fun! You will meet new friends, try new activities, and help others along the way.

Participation in the International Student Ambassador (ISA) Program is on a voluntary basis and is not remunerated. However, Ambassadors may have the opportunity to engage in additional tasks that are eligible for compensation. Furthermore, outstanding performance and active involvement may be recognized through various forms of reward and acknowledgment.

¹ The ISA program is managed and coordinated by the International Marketing Office, which belongs to the International Centre.

Who can apply?

Any full-time (non-exchange) international student with an active student status at the University of Pécs can apply if they have completed at least 18 credits in their last active semester recorded in the Neptun study system.
