The UP story

Since it opened its doors in 1367, University of Pécs has positioned itself high on the higher education world map among Universities which build up future generations of modern society and offer excellent education. Being one of the most internationalized universities in Hungary, UP is today home to more than 4,500 foreign students from over 114 countries.

As Pécs is a quite small city with around 150,000 inhabitants and unique atmosphere, the city provides a very secure and calm environment for the students. The multi campus town of Pécs is known as the heart of Europe where history and tradition meet modern life. Choosing to study in the European Capital of Culture of 2010, one becomes a part of a lively multicultural community.

Step-by-step video guide
With the help of our international Student Ambassador, Fatimah Malik from Pakistan, we prepared a step-by-step video, about how to submit an application on the apply.pte.hu surface. Watch this if you need some last minute help, because the applications are still open for most of our programs!
